Characteristics and Stories

Trustworthy

Secondary school classmate

One of the things that impressed me most was that I was often urged to study by you, even if I had no confidence in myself, you would cheer me on. Since then we have become friends.

I like and am good at making friends with various people in different age groups from from different occupations. As I think trustworthy good people deserve to be friends. So I am good at feeling different people's feelings, and finding common language among us.

University roommate

A summer vacation, I went to work with you. You and the people in the dormitory next doors have a very good relationship. They are local middle school students, aunts from other places, students from other majors. I think it's amazing.

Characteristics and Stories

Infective

Childhood Friend

I remember that when the phone was installed at home, I was afraid to call someone else, afraid to say the wrong thing by the wrong number. You encouraged me to make a successful phone call and chat.

Former colleague and good friend

“Every time I meet you in the company, you come and say hello bouncing around, very energetic, like a happy elfin, infecting the people around you.”

Ex-leader

I remember one time when we prepared for a large press conference in 15 days. The whole team continued to work overtime and was very tired. Xiaoxia always used her own "smile" to motivate everyone to stick to work and create a very good working atmosphere.

Interesting and Special

New friend

You have cut a subtle and handsome hairstyle: it is quiet and lovely when putting down , when tied up ,it is handsome!

Best friend

“You are also an artistic person in my eyes. You are different from ordinary people in thinking, can write poetry, emotional delicacy. ”

Best friend

You have some fantastic hobbies. There are many differences between you and the people around me. For example, you imitate drama performances, change your hairstyle every year, and find different people to shoot the same model.

Characteristics and Stories

Kind-hearted and impassioned

Best friend

You comforted a strange crying girl on the road, when you found that you do not have paper towel and bought it to her at the shop letting her wipe her tears.

I seek the opportunities to help others. I can make the people around me feel happy and warm.

Best friend

In college, you often lent me money , at that time ,you did not have money, too. But you also lend the money which you should use to buy food in spite of hunger.
